

RosiesHouse.org Privacy Policy

Rosie's House: A Music Academy for Children, Inc., and its subsidiaries and affiliates ("Rosie's House", or "we", "us", or "our", as applicable) values the privacy and personal information of our donors, students, and partners. This Privacy Policy, as modified from time to time, describes our practices in connection with information collected through our www.rosieshouse.org website (the "Website").

As a general principle, information you provide to us will only be used or shared by Rosie's House as outlined in this Privacy Policy.

By visiting or using the Website, you agree to the practices and policies set forth in this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy, you may not use the Website.

As noted below under "Changes to Privacy Policy", we reserve the right to amend this Privacy Policy from time to time in our sole discretion, and will post and maintain the most recent version of the Privacy Policy on the Website.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect two basic types of information from you in conjunction with your use of the Website – personal information and non-personal information.

"Personal information" is any information that can individually identify you and includes, for example and without limitation, your name, email address, username, telephone number, postal address, and employer name, address, phone number, and email.

"Non-personal information" includes information that does not personally identify you, but may include (without limitation) tracking and usage information about your location, transaction information, use of the Website and the Internet, etc.

Personal Information

There are a number of circumstances in which you may voluntarily supply us with your personal information. The following lists the most common ways in which we may collect your personal information:

- Sign up to receive information or related services from us;
- Registration for an account as a volunteer, student, or other user;
- Participation on social media accounts involving Rosie's House;
- Signing up to receive information or related services from us via the Website; or
- Any other place on the Website where you knowingly volunteer personal information.

Social Media Sites

When you interact with a Rosie's House account on a social media platform, such as Facebook®, Instagram®, Twitter®, YouTube®, or other social media platforms, we may collect the personal information that you make available to us on that page or account, including your user ID and/or user name, and any information you have made public in connection with that social media platform. Please note, however, that we will comply with the privacy policies of the corresponding social media platform and we will only collect and store such personal information that we are permitted to collect by these social media platforms.

Our Website includes social media widgets, such as Facebook®, YouTube®, and Twitter® widgets. These features may collect information about your IP address and which page you're visiting on our Website, and they may set a cookie to make sure their feature functions properly. Social media features and widgets are either hosted by a third party or hosted directly on our Website. Your interactions with those features are governed by the privacy policies of the companies that provide them.

Children's Online Privacy

Rosie's House is committed to complying with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA). We require you to be at least 18 years old to use the Website. We do not knowingly solicit, collect, utilize, or disclose personal information from minors. If we learn that a child under 13 has provided personal information to us without verification of parental consent, we will take commercially reasonable steps to delete that information.

Non-Personal Information

When you use the Website, our servers may keep an activity log that does not identify you individually. These logs may include information such as device information about your computer, mobile device, or other device that you use to access the Website, which may include your IP address, browser, etc., and additional traffic data, such as time and date of access, access times, and referring website addresses. We use this information to assist us in running the Website and ensuring proper operation.

Use of Cookies

When you interact with the Website, we automatically receive and record information on our server logs from your browser, including your IP address, "cookie" information, and the page you requested.

Cookies and other tracking technologies (such as browser cookies, pixels, beacons, and Adobe Flash technology including cookies) are comprised of small bits of data that often include a de-identified or anonymous unique identifier. Websites, platforms, portals, apps and other services send this data to your browser when you first request a web page and then store the data on your computer so the website can access information when you make subsequent requests for pages from that service. We may use these technologies to also collect and store information about your usage of the Website, such as the pages you have visited, content you have viewed, search queries you have run and advertisements you have seen.

Most browsers are initially set to accept cookies, but you can change your settings to notify you when a cookie is being set or updated, or to block cookies altogether. Please consult the "Help" section of your browser for more information. Please note that by blocking any or all cookies, you may not have access to certain features, content, or personalization available through the Website.

"Do Not Track" Practices

At this time, we do not honor do-not-track signals from browsers or other consumer choice mechanisms regarding the collection of behavioral tracking data. While we collect personal information from you as described above, we do not collect personal information from you to monitor your online activities across third party websites or online services and over time (also known as behavioral advertising or interest-based advertising). We do not use or allow third parties to collect personal information from you on the Website in order to monitor your online activities across third party websites or online services and over time.

Email and Other Communications

We may contact you by email or other means at an email address that you have provided to us. For example, we may send you promotional offers, our newsletter, or our annual report. If you do not want to receive email from us, please let us know through the "unsubscribe" feature included in our communications.

2. Our Use of Information

We use the information we collect from you to help us personalize and continually improve your experience with the Website and our services. We may use the information we collect from and about you in the following ways:

- Provide you with the products, services, and information you request from us;
- Communicate with you about your account with us or your use of the Website, and send you information about features on the Website;
- Schedule participation in our offered services;
- Communicate with you about changes to our policies;
- Perform statistical, demographic, and marketing analyses of users of the Website and their usage patterns;
- Send you newsletters, offers, or special events by email or other media;
- Optimize or improve our products, services, and operations; and/or
- Detect, investigate, or prevent activities that may violate our policies or be illegal.

3. Our Disclosure of Information

We will only share personal information as provided in this Privacy Policy, and within Rosie's House and our affiliates.

As part of using and/or accessing the Website, we may share your information with third party companies and individuals to facilitate or provide services in connection with the Website, to perform Website related services (e.g., without limitation, maintenance services, database management, web analytics, and improvement of features, payment services, and marketing analytics), or to assist us in how the Website is used.

We may also use or disclose your personal information if required to do so by law or in the good-faith belief that such action is necessary to (a) conform to applicable law or comply with legal process served on us or the Website; (b) respond to requests from public and government authorities; (c) protect and defend our rights or property, the Website, or our users; and (d) act under emergency circumstances to protect the personal safety of us, our affiliates, agents, or the users of the Website or the public.

Merger, Sale, Or Bankruptcy

If we sell all or part of our business, or make a sale or transfer of our assets, or are otherwise involved in a merger or transfer of all or a material part of our business, or are involved in a bankruptcy, Rosie's House may transfer your information to the party or parties involved as part of that transaction.

California Privacy Rights

If you are a California resident and have an established business relationship with us, you can request a notice disclosing the categories of personal information we have shared with third parties, for the third parties' direct marketing purposes, during the preceding calendar year. To request a notice, please submit your request to the contact listed in Section 7 or call us at or call us at 602-252-8475.

4. Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. We use commercially reasonable efforts to protect your personal information collected through the Website from access, loss, misuse, alteration, or destruction by any unauthorized party. Please understand, however, that no transmission of data over the internet or any other public network can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. We do not promise, and you should not expect, that your personal information or private communications will always remain private. You are also responsible for taking reasonable steps to protect your information against unauthorized disclosure or misuse such as by maintaining the confidentiality of your username and password, and logging out of your account when not using the Website.

5. Links to or from Other Websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest, including links to a third-party website that enables donations to Rosie's House. Once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement or policy of each third-party website you visit.

6. Changes to Privacy Policy

As noted in the beginning of this Privacy Policy, we reserve the right to revise this Privacy Policy from time to time in our sole discretion, and will post and maintain the most recent version of the Privacy Policy on the Website. We may not notify Website visitors of any such revisions by e-mail, phone or other personal contact. You are responsible for reviewing this Privacy Policy upon each visit to the Portal. You can determine if the Privacy Policy has been revised since your last visit by referring to the "Last Modified" date at the top of this document.
